4. STATEMENT: The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the required reply until the filing of a grantable petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional. [NOTE. The United States Patent and Trademark Office may require additional information if there is a question as to whether either the abandonment or the delay in filing a petition under 37 CFR 1.137(b) was unintentional (MPEP 711.03(c), subsections (III)(C) and (D)).]

WARNING:

Petitioner/applicant is cautioned to avoid submitting personal information in documents filed in a patent application that may contribute to identity theft. Personal information such as social security numbers, bank account numbers, or credit card numbers (other than a check or credit card authorization form PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes) is never required by the USPTO to support a petition or an application. If this type of personal information is included in documents submitted to the USPTO, petitioners/applicants should consider redacting such personal information from the documents before submitting them to the USPTO. Petitioner/applicant is advised that the record of a patent application is available to the public after publication of the application (unless a non-publication request in compliance with 37 CFR 1.213(a) is made in the application) or issuance of a patent. Furthermore, the record from an abandoned application may also be available to the public if the application is referenced in a published application or an issued patent (see 37 CFR 1.14). Checks and credit card authorization forms PTO-2038 submitted for payment purposes are not retained in the application file and therefore are not publicly available.

PETITION TO REVIVE UNDER 37 CFR 1.137

Sir:

Applicants hereby petition the Commissioner under 37 C.F.R. 1.137 to revive the above-identified, unintentionally abandoned application.

This application became abandoned in view of Applicant's failure to provide a timely response to the Office Action dated May 16, 2005. A Response was due to be filed by August 16, 2005 with a three-month Extension of Time.

The entire delay in filing the required reply from the due date for the reply until the filing of this Petition pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(b), was unintentional.

Applicants are concurrently filing an Amendment with the present Petition. The Application was unintentionally abandoned during transfer of the prosecution from outside counsel.

Early and favorable action is earnestly requested.

Applicants hereby authorize the Commissioner to charge any other fees associated with this petition to Deposit Account No. 19-1025.

Respectfully submitted,

Philip B. Polster, II
